Faster Networking

The revolutionary Gigabit Ethernet is 100 times faster than the original Ethernet, enabling the Aficio™CL7200/CL7300 to process print jobs much faster. This is supported by a high performance controller, and the ability to print in duplex at similar speed to single-sided (standard on CL7300).

Advanced Printing Solutions

To safeguard your workflow while keeping your network free of unnecessary traffic, the Aficio™CL7200/CL7300 offer Sample Print™, Locked Print™ and Storage Print™ for unrivalled document flexibility and security. You can proof your document for errors before a large print run or suspend printing while away from the device. And you can store documents permanently on the device: ideal for simple access to documents you print regularly (like invoice or expense slips). With PDF Direct Print you can also print PDF files without accessing Adobe® Acrobat® – thus reducing your network traffic and saving valuable time.

High Quality Colour Output

When quality is essential, the Aficio™CL7200/CL7300 really make an impact. Enhanced colour registration with stable imaging and reproduction make every image crisp and clear. Because both units use oil-free polymerisation toner, you save on energy costs too.
